

Comprehension 3

Hello! Well here I am again. I'm back!

Have been away to some very big hills somewhere in the north, a long way from home.

This time it wasn't an old lady's bag, I went in, it was a young boy's.

He didn't have any goodies either, just a pair of huge shoes. They were so big I could climb inside them.

When we got to the end of the journey, I climbed out and all I could see was white stuff, snow I think it's called, and lots of big people wearing the big shoes and sliding down the big hills ---- very, very fast! I wanted to have a go too but I didn't have any BIG SHOES. I wonder where I can get big shoes for squirrels?

Oooh and I got so cold, my tail went all stiff and my paws got frost bite.

I had to find somewhere warm. The bag! Where was it? Where was the boy?

Questions

1. Where do you think the big hills were?

- a. Scotland b. Wales c. Cornwall d. London
e. Elsewhere

Give your reasons.

2. Why didn't Nutty like the young boy's bag?

3. Where did he spend the journey?

4. What do you think the big people in big shoes were doing?

5. What happened to Nutty when he was in the snow?

6. Give a short account of what you think might have happened next.
