

Nutty gets out of Trouble!

'Nutty please come out and see us'
'Shall we sing you a song?'
'Why did you go away for so long?'
'Did you have some fun adventures?'

'Sssh children! Nutty won't come out if you carry on making all that noise. If we stay nice and quiet we might just be able to persuade him to come and talk to us!'

So I'm back in my bag again!

What a bit of 'Nutty luck' that Mrs Whatsoname was on a school trip too. I might still be wandering around those woods now if she hadn't seen my tail poking out of that hole in the tree. I did not like that Freddie Fox. He looked right mean! And he did nearly get me!

'Right Nuts' I hear Mrs Whatsoname saying, 'I think it's time you came out of your hiding place and start answering some of the children's questions, don't you?'

I slowly climb out of the bag and poke my head over the top. Oh no, I can't face it! I'll wait till they've sung my song!

Ahh that's nice! Perhaps I will come out now.

I whisper something in Mrs W's ear and she repeats it to the children.

'Nutty wants to know if he can stay here forever'

'Yes yes yes, ' they call out 'Then we can talk to him every single day.'
'And give him lots of nuts in the winter time.' says Mrs W

'Can you ask him if he's finished his adventures?' asks one little girl.

I shake my head slowly. I can't possibly answer that question because I just don't know the answer.
